

I Cor. 1:10-21

I appeal to you, brothers, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you agree with one another so that there may be no divisions among you and that you may be perfectly united in mind and thought. My brothers, some from Chloe's household have informed me that there are quarrels among you. What I mean is this: One of you says, "I follow Paul"; another, "I follow Apollos"; another, "I follow Cephas"; still another, "I follow Christ."

Is Christ divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Were you baptized into the name of Paul? I am thankful that I did not baptize any of you except Crispus and Gaius, so no one can say that you were baptized into my name. (Yes, I also baptized the household of Stephanas; beyond that, I don't remember if I baptized anyone else.) For Christ did not send me to baptize, but to preach the gospel—not with words of human wisdom, 1 lest the cross of Christ be emptied of its power.

For the message of the cross is foolishness 2 to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God. For it is written:

"I will destroy the wisdom 3 of the wise; 4 the intelligence 5 of the intelligent 6 I will frustrate."

Where is the wise 7 man? Where is the scholar? 8 Where is the philosopher 9 of this age? Has not God made foolish 10 the wisdom 11 of the world? For since in the wisdom 12 of God the world through its wisdom 13 did not know him, God was pleased through the foolishness 14 of what was preached to save those who believe.

8. Ja. 4:1-3 What causes fights and quarrels among you? Don't they come from your desires that battle within you? You want something but don't get it. You kill and covet, but you cannot have what you want. You quarrel and fight. You do not have, because you do not ask God. When you ask, you do not receive, because you ask with wrong motives, that you may spend what you get on your pleasures.
